

Job Open Position: Environmental Staff Scientist with 7+ years' experience

Location: Rosenberg Texas

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $65,402.07 - $75,000 Salary - per year

Company Description

CRG Texas Environmental Services, Inc., is a comprehensive environmental Consulting firm located in Rosenberg Texas. CRG Texas specializes in environmental due diligence, risk management, regulatory compliance, field assessments, remediation, waste management and LPST services. tackles diverse environmental challenges while staying updated on federal, state, and local regulations. CRG Texas strives to provide tailored solutions to meet clients' project-specific needs through a combination of expertise and innovative practices.

Role Description

We are seeking an Environmental Scientist with 7-10 years of experience performing Environmental Site Assessments and remediation in accordance with ASTM standards and Texas regulatory requirements, TCEQ Programs and RRCTX Rules.

If you are passionate and eager to make an impact on the environmental sector, we invite you to apply for the Environmental Staff Scientist at CRG Texas Environmental Services today!

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $65,402.07 - $75,000 Salary - per year

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in environmental science, Geology, or related field
- Experience in Environmental Science and Environmental
- Field Work Skills
- Environmental Consulting skills
- Strong attention to detail and analytical skills
- Knowledge of Federal, State, and Local environmental regulations
- Excellent report written and verbal communication skills
- Current OSHA 40hr/8hr HAZWOPER training.

Experienced

7+ years' experience in a leadership role in environmental consulting:

- Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) Programs: Leaking Petroleum Storage Tank (LPST), Texas Risk Reduction (TRRP), Voluntary Cleanup (VCP).
- Railroad Commission of Texas (RRCTX) Rules, Operator Cleanup (OCP), Voluntary Cleanup (VCP), Enforcement Action Cleanup sites.

- Phase I, Phase II ESAs
- SWPPP experienced is a plus

Key Responsibilities

- Maintain long-term strategic client relationships
- Effectively manage the preparation of proposals and other project deliverables in accordance with Company risk management and quality management requirements
- Identify and utilize available company resources to effectively support client needs
- Remain current with industry trends, market information and competitor knowledge to proactively identify potential opportunities and forecast business projections and growth targets.
- Provide project management support for projects. Assure that scope, schedule and budget of projects are tracked and modified with client approval as needed
- Provide senior-level technical support (including field support, as necessary) to projects
- Performing and supervising environmental projects such as LPST site assessments, RRC projects, due diligence/Phase I ESAs, property development, contaminated materials management, investigation/remediation, environmental compliance plan development, and permitting, knowledge of Clean Water Act Regulatory Program, Endangered Species Act as they relate to environmental permitting.
- Maintain current information on upcoming regulations and emerging environmental issues. Ensure compliance with state, federal, and other regulatory agencies
- Some overnight travel on short notice may be required.

What We Offer:

- Competitive salary based on experience.
- Paid training and opportunities for professional development.
- Supportive team environment with room to advance.
- We offer competitive salaries, most major holidays and personal time off.
- Medical, dental, vision, life insurance and match retirement plans.

CRG Texas is an equal opportunity employer and value diversity at our company. We do not discriminate based on race, religion, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, marital status, veteran status, or disability status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law.